

Branded: Zero Tolerance and the Accused Bully (Paperback)

By Christine A Vassell-Morgan

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Christopher Stockwell (illustrator). Language: English. Brand new Book. When her huge, gentle 10-year-old son Jordan is accused of bullying, Christine Morgan finds she's his lone advocate. Criminal assault charges are filed against Jordan, and he enters the Texas Juvenile Justice System. Quoting a zero tolerance policy, the school administrators banish him into one of the district's infamous alternative schools-he's automatically considered guilty as charged. Desperately sleuthing to prove Jordan's innocence, Christine uncovers a web of betrayal, lies and intimidation throughout the school district's administration. With nowhere to turn, Christine cries out to God to vindicate her son. She wrestles constantly with her conflicting emotions as she tries to obey His voice guiding them through their terrifying ordeal. Jordan's faith and calm never waver. "Don't worry mommy, God's got a plan-God's got me in His hands!".
